Subject: 2008 Exhibition Requirements

Thank you for your continuing support of the Board of Animal Health's programs. As you make preparations for the 2008 exhibition season, please take note of the 2008 state animal health requirements for exhibition.

The Indiana State Board of Animal Health (BOAH) has made no changes in the state animal health requirements for animal exhibitions for the 2008 exhibition season.

Like 2007, BOAH will not require a CVI for animals that originate within the state in 2008. State requirements for animals that originate outside the state have not changed.

Please Note: Nothing in the State rules prevents an exhibition organizer from requiring certificates of veterinary inspection or other animal health precautions for a particular fair or show. BOAH recommends contacting the exhibition organizer for specific information about requirements for each event.

If you have questions, please direct them as follows:

1. By letter to: Indiana State Board of Animal Health, Attn: Legal Affairs, 805 Beachway Drive, Suite 50; Indianapolis, IN 46224.
2. By electronic mail to: ghaynes@boah.in.gov
3. By telephone to the BOAH toll free number: 1-877-747-3038.

The information contained in this document, along with supplemental materials, will also be available on-line at www.boah.in.gov.
